

SDAWP Twitter

“Follow a Fellow”

SDAWP Weekly Twitter Campaign

Mission:

Build an awareness and following for SDAWP via the weekly stories of a SDAWP fellow.

Requirements:

Tweet...tweet....tweet (Share stories of successes, failures, your life as an educator and beyond. You are a whole person-- we'd love to hear how you strive to balance teaching responsibilities and your life)

NUTS & BOLTS

How to “take over” the Twitter account:

1. Sign in    username: SDAWPxxxx    password: xxxxxxxx
Adjust Settings
2. Account → change username (SDAWPName)→ save changes
3. Profile → change profile picture → change name (SDAWPName) → change Bio → save changes
4. Compose TWEET. Add #sdawp if you want to add to the SDAWP conversation. Try to find opportunities to alert @cwp (our state network), @nwpsiteleaders, @writingproject, etc. by tagging them in your tweets. We want them to know what we're up to :)

First “Tweet” Requirement for Consistency Purposes:

Sweden allows a new citizen each week to take over Sweden's Twitter account. SDAWP decided to be like Sweden. Welcome to my world!

When your week is through, invite the next fellow to join this document. Make sure that YOU change the username on this document.

Also, the Twitter account is linked to a yahoo email.

sdawptwitter@yahoo.com    password: xxxxxxx

**You may, but it is NOT necessary that you check the email account, or alter the settings. It was created for the purpose of creating a Twitter account that was not directly linked to one person.
